

Photograph looking eastwards, downstream, at scour of true left bank at downstream location. Bank is 4 – 5 metres high along this reach of the Waiau River. Note two braids formed in the distance, and river tending to go back to south braid.

Photograph looking westwards, upstream, at scour of true left bank at upstream location. Note power lines across Waiau River at this site. AIC Scheme on left bank and Twin Bridges in the distance.

Photograph looking eastwards, downstream, at scouring willows at most downstream location of the upstream reach.